Item 8.01. Other Events.

On July 17, 2008, Exelixis, Inc. (the "Company") announced that Frances K. Heller will be joining the Company as its Executive Vice President of Business Development. In this position, Ms. Heller will lead business development activities for the Company's pipeline of compounds for the treatment of cancer and other serious diseases.

Most recently, Ms. Heller was Head of Strategic Alliances at Novartis Institutes for Biomedical Research (NIBR), the global research organization for Novartis AG. In this position, she negotiated transactions around promising early-stage assets to accelerate NIBR's drug discovery and development efforts. Previously she had served as Vice President of Corporate Development & Legal Affairs at Signature BioScience, Inc., an oncology drug discovery company, where she oversaw partnering and licensing activities. Prior to that, she had been Corporate and Intellectual Property Counsel for Celera Genomics, where she was head of the legal department and responsible for corporate and business transactions and gene discovery collaborations. Ms. Heller received her JD degree from the Golden Gate University School of Law, her MA in biology from American University, and her BS in biology from Tulane University. She is a member of the California State Bar and is licensed by the US Patent and Trademark Office.
